

Charlotte Temple Study Guide

- I. Be able to explain the connections between our intro notes, the literature of the times, & this story by citing specific examples.

- II. Be able to identify the following characters based upon the “Methods of Characterization” (pg. 1466 in your literature book):

The process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character is called characterization. A writer can reveal a character in the following ways:

1. By telling us directly what the character is like
2. By describing how the character looks and dresses
3. By letting us hear the character speak
4. By revealing the character’s private thoughts and feelings
5. By revealing the character’s effect on other people
6. By showing the character in action

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| a. Narrator of the story | g. Mrs. Lucy Temple (Charlotte’s mom) |
| b. Charlotte Temple | h. Madame DuPont |
| c. Montraville | i. Mademoiselle La Rue |
| d. Belcour | j. Captain Eldridge |
| e. Mr. Henry Temple (Charlotte’s dad) | k. Julia Franklin |
| f. Colonel Crayton | l. Mrs. Beauchamp |

- III. Keep a list of all vocabulary terms that are new to you. (There will be an extensive list)
 - a. Write out the word
 - b. Include which chapter the word was used in
 - c. and the definition that best fits its context in the story

Example: perusal (from the Preface): To read or examine, typically with great care.